OPTIONAL

Career Objective

Sets the tone for your resume and clarifies the type of position you seek. This is a short statement indicating what type of work you are looking for (full-time or part-time); the particular kind of position you want (cashier, lifeguard, etc.); and what you hope to achieve.

To secure a customer service position with a dynamic and growing company where there is the opportunity for personal growth and professional development.

To obtain a building maintenance position where my construction experience and strong interpersonal skills may be fully utilized.

*Be careful not to be overly specific; this may eliminate some employment opportunities.

Work Experiences

Work experience does not have to be paid. You can also include unpaid work, such as internships or co-op placements. If your volunteer activities are as impressive as your paid work experience, add information to this section with a notation. Ex: Fundraising Director (Volunteer)

- Enter your position title, employer, city, state, and dates of employment. (most recent first – reverse chronological order)
- Hours = TOTAL NUMBER OF HOURS AS OF TODAY
- Description: enter your regular duties, special projects you were involved with, and accomplishments you achieved through the course of your work. If still presently employed provide details on approximate hours per week or month.

Child Care Provider Name of Family Location Jan 2011 – present

Description: Responsible for two children ages 2 and 5, monitored play activities and prepared meals. Employer has recognized me as their exclusive and preferred provider. 8-10 hours per month.

Intern WA Dept of Fish & Wildlife Olympia, WA Sept 2010-Dec 2010

Description: Assisted in stream sampling projects, worked on conservation and research events. Received certificate of achievement for outstanding work.

Do not leave any sections within blank – if blank, all of information will not be entered onto resume.

- Attributes – quality, characteristic or trait
- Computer Skills – programs or certifications
- Check off the skills or abilities you possess from the list. If you have skills or abilities that are not on the list, you can use the Enter Your Own spaces provided at the bottom of the list to add them to this section of your resume.
- For each skill or ability, add your thoughts in the Comments box.

References

References are people that potential employers can contact to learn more about you and verify information on your resume. References are usually current or former employers, teachers, or people who have overseen extracurricular activities (e.g. coaches, supervisors, etc.). – NOT a family member.

* Be sure to ask people before you list them as references!!

Typically, you should have two or three references.

Send a THANK YOU CARD to anyone who has agreed to be your reference, after an interview, anyone writes you a recommendation or helps you with a scholarship. (very important!)
